The mission of the Information Technology Department is to provide secure, reliable, efficient, and effective technology services to the faculty, staff and students of the District. To align with the District's mission (/board-of-trustees/vision-mission-values), the department is committed to excellence, striving to provide technology leadership and long-term vision, sustainability through innovation, high-quality service and support, and continuous improvement to assist in student learning, and support the colleges in their missions and functions.

District Services

Associate Vice Chancellor's Office and IT Operations

Software Applications and Development

Network Infrastructure and Security

College Services

Moorpark College

Oxnard College

Ventura College

Information Technology

Services for Employees ⌄

Services for Faculty ⌄

Services for Students ⌄

Information Security ⌄

Forms & Access Requests ⌄

Policy & Planning ⌄

MyVCCCD ⌄

Related Links

VCCCD Systems Status ›